New York-WASHINGTON-Paris.

To-day a Very Attractive Display of

ANY of the little ones who were not able to visit the Opening of Toyland last Saturday have prevailed upon us to keep the special displays intact for their benefit, and every child who can possibly be present is invited to come to our Toy Store to-day.

NEW TOYS AND NOVELTIES

have been received and placed on exhibition since our opening, and many more new ones will be shown today. There is a multitude of little trankets for the stocking and Christmas tree-and a great collection of which have but recently been completed, large toys-in fact, too many to mention.

Also a Special Display of Mechanical Toys, including the latest one from Germany-a reproduction of a house afire-the fire department, working automatically, arrives, and a stream of water is soon playing upon the blaze-and a number of other things impossible to enumerate, but which are equally fascinating and instructive.

"W. & L. Special" Dollar Doll.

This doll is made expressly for us by one of the most favorably known manufacturers in Germany. The face is very pretty and lifelike-more so this year than ever before, and it has real hair eyelashes, the same Mme. Livonius was in pale blue satin kind as used on the $5.00 to $10.00 dolls-which adds greatly to its appearance. It is full-jointed and 22 inches high, exact measurement. We believe it cannot be equaled at the price,

$1.00 each.

Specials in Dolls' Furnishings.

We have secured another lot of Dolls' Furnishing's, such as advertised for the opening, and shall place them on sale to-day at a very special price. All styles, colors, and sizes are included.
